LET THEM EAT CAKE

Bonnie Gokson has made a name for herself as the mistress of sweet stuff, ever since the crunch cake appeared on Joyce Café's menu. Its success led to a reintroduction of the cake when Sevva opened in 2008 (not to mention a couple of knockoffs), and now la Gokson is expanding on the idea by opening her first pastries-only venture, named Miss B's Cakery. The bespoke bakery will purvey custom-ordered cakes to discerning guests who seek sweets that taste as good as they look - not always a given in our presentation-obsessed gastronomic culture. If the crunch cake is anything to go by, that means lightness and moisture in spades, of the variety usually expected of clouds, but pleasantly applied instead to pastries. msbscakery.hk
